Content

Please note that Unit 3 Student Book (0-521-78230-9) used for Latin 2.

There is an on-going story line throughout the Student Books of the series. The story line provides for continuity and maintains high levels of student interest. However, the content of each Student Book is also complete and meaningful in and of itself, and does not require that students progress to the next level of instruction in order to learn appropriate language structures or read with comprehension and enjoyment.

The storyline explores through the experiences of Quintus, Salvius, Agricola, and many other individuals and groups from throughout the empire (including Rome, Roman Britain, and Judea) the might and influence of the Roman political and military organizations, 79-85 AD.

Student Experiences

Please see information under the sections Organization, Assessment, and Research Data

Assessment

Ongoing assessment of student progress is provided in the Student Book (comprehension questions, exercises on grammar, syntax, and vocabulary), the Teacher's Manual (suggestions for assessment items and approaches; additional diagnostic oral and written assessments) and the Stage Tests.

Stage Tests provides a 100-item assessment for each Stage (chapter). Each test consists of a variety of carefully designed sections that provide teachers with an accurate evaluation of all aspects of each chapter, including reading comprehension, grammar, derivatives, and culture. Illustrations from the Student Book are included.

Organization

Each chapter (Stage): Opening Illustrations and Model Sentences (inductive presentation); Reading Selections; About the Language; Practicing the Language; Cultural Background; Word Study; Word Patterns; Vocabulary Checklist. End of text: Language Information; Index of Cultural Topics; Index of Grammatical Topics; Time Chart
